GENERAL SECRETARIAT

No. G. 5855—P. H. 18-35-38, dated 20th—21st January 1936.

The following notification issued by the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, prohibiting the assemblage of persons from plague or cholera infected areas on the occasion of the Irpu jatra at Kurchi in South Coorg, is hereby published for general information:—

“The Chief Commissioner of Coorg.

By Order,
M. VENKATESA IYENGAR,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, the 10th January 1936.

No. 7. Whereas the Chief Commissioner of Coorg is satisfied that there is danger of an outbreak of plague or cholera at Kurchi, a village in Srimangalnad in South Coorg, if persons from plague or cholera infected areas either in the Mysore State or elsewhere are permitted to assemble at that place on the occasion of the ensuing Irpu jatra during the Mahasivaratri festival.

In exercise of the powers delegated to him under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, the Chief Commissioner prohibits the attendance at the said jatra of persons from plague or cholera infected areas on the 21st and 22nd February 1936.

All persons proceeding to the jatra in contravention of this notification will be turned back.

A. J. Courtney,
Assistant Secretary to the Chief
Commissioner.”
